Sacrifices

Public sacrifices to Vinga are of red cows, Private sacrifices to Vinga are of female red deer. These graceful creatures are sacred to the goddess, for they defend their young with great ferocity and courage. Individual worshippers offer locks of hair, spearheads, or the sweat of their brow. When Vingans seek victory in battle, they sacrifice a snow-white ram to the goddess. Vingans conduct their ceremonies in the open air, usually by the Vinga Poles (ornamented and warded keypost pillars that are part of a defensive palisade).

Can converse with herd beasts using spells
